

List of Workshops

Session 1

10:45 A.M. Workshops

Bomb Trains: A Threat to NY State Groundwater and Aquifers ~ Charley Bowman	DS 214
What Buffalo's Outer Harbor Has to do With Food ~ Jay Burney and Margaret Wooster	DS 218
Public Transportation in WNY with Emphasis on the Importance of Public Transportation to Healthy Food Access ~ Douglas Funke	DS 219
Glyphosate - The Most Widely Used Herbicide in the World ~ Sue Keleher	DS 221
Plant-Based Nutrition for the Prevention & Reversal of Disease ~ Jessica Meyers-Altman	DS 222
Saving Seed in Your Home Garden ~ Petra Page-Mann	Wick 113-115
Introduction to Emotional Freedom Techniques or Tapping (EFT) ~ Annette Romeo	DS 227
Stop the Pipeline, Standing with Standing Rock. ~ Shontae Buckley & Agnes Williams	DS 236
Food & Climate Justice: What is the Relationship? ~ Lynda Schneekloth, Roger Cook, and Keith Tripi	DS 11
Storm Water Management, Green Infrastructure & Sustainable Landscaping ~ Joshua Smith	DS 26

Session 2

12:00 P.M. Workshops

GMO & Herbicide Implications for Bees, Pollinators and Local Ecosystems ~ Geri Hens	DS 214
Doing Good for Yourself and the World: Socially Responsible and Sustainable Investing ~ Jeffrey Goldfarb, Adam Goldfarb and Chintan Shukla	DS 218
Lessons from the Garden ~ Patricia Hull	DS 219
Climate Change and Food Security ~ Jack Kanack	DS 221
Shé:kon Wathentón:nis (The Greens Are Still Growing): Adventures in Drought Gardening at the Tuscarora Nation ~ Laticia McNaughton	DS 222
The Wonderful World of Heirloom Beans: History, Growing & Eating! ~ Remy Orlowski	Wick 113-115
American Food Culture and the Violence of Euphemisms ~ George Payne	DS 227
Better Health through Weston Price Principles ~ Carol Poliner	DS 236
Making Finely Fermented Foods ~ William Romanow and Donna Dudek	DS 11
GMOs, Monsanto, and Higher Education ~ Robert Schooler	DS 26

DS = Duns Scotus Hall

Wick = Wick Campus Center